“ A LOOK AT YOUR ACLU

Protecting and advancing the rights of everyone requires the ACLU be nimble, dynamic, strategic and multi-faceted. The ACLU is all that and more.

The ACLU is known for big court cases, and we have won many, but our impact reaches far beyond the courtroom and plays out in the everyday lives of Americans.

This year's annual report shows that impact with numbers and stories from the frontlines of protecting everyone.

– KATHLEEN TAYLOR, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
ACLU OF WASHINGTON

In pursuit of
FREEDOM,
the ACLU is...

VIGILANT

The ACLU is a watchdog and champion for PRIVACY RIGHTS at all levels. In light of rapidly changing technologies, the omnipresence of Homeland Security, and the militarization of police, we must be on high alert to stay ahead.

$2,700

Approximate cost to install one "pan, tilt and zoom camera"

$2,700,000

Amount the Department of Homeland Security gave the Seattle Police Department to pay for its "mesh network" of surveillance cameras

2

Number of police drones acquired in Washington state

0

Number of drones deployed after ACLU-WA activated public outcry

3 2 3

Days Seattleites have NOT been monitored by a "mesh network" of police cameras* that were disabled after pressure from ACLU-WA

**as of Nov 1, 2014*

INNOVATIVE

After years of legwork changing hearts and minds about the drug war, ACLU-WA drafted the initiative that ENDED SENSELESS MARIJUANA PROHIBITION.

$492,000,000

Estimated annual tax revenue from marijuana sales in Washington.

NUMBER OF MARIJUANA COURT FILINGS - AGE 21+

REVENUE IS EARMARKED FOR

$20,000,000

Amount Washington taxpayers spent each year on marijuana-related arrests and charges prior to legalization

$20,000,000

Sales of marijuana in the first three months after legalization

PERSISTENT

The ACLU has been dedicated to LGBT RIGHTS and equality for decades.
Today we are seeing the results all over the country.

“ IN THEIR WORDS - ONE MAN'S JOURNEY OF PERSISTENCE

When I was under investigation by the Air Force in the 1980s on suspicion of being gay, I didn't know what to do. Finally, I called the ACLU. Executive Director Kathleen Taylor was the only person who listened to my story and cared, and whom I felt I could confide in because I actually am gay.

Forty odd years later, I married the love of my life, under the law, in my home state of Washington and we are about to have a huge celebration! Just last year we didn't think we'd be able to afford a celebration because my husband has chronic leukemia. The treatment which keeps him in remission amounts to many thousands of dollars a month. We feared he could be laid off, lose his insurance, and we would be bankrupted.

But because of the ACLU wins, first over Don't Ask Don't Tell, and then over the Defense of Marriage Act last summer, he is now entitled to the federal benefits of a retired veteran's spouse and is fully covered. Time to celebrate!

In pursuit of
EQUALITY,
the ACLU is...

PERSUASIVE

ACLU-WA's Education Equity Project works to KEEP ALL CHILDREN IN SCHOOL. We insist on policies that support the most vulnerable students rather than push them out.

47,500

Number of Washington students who were suspended or expelled from school last year

50%

Occasions that "OTHER" is listed as reason for suspension in Seattle school districts, rather than one of the required categories to report: bullying, fighting, using drugs, bringing a weapon to school

Number of comments by ACLU-WA activists that led the state education agency to adopt limitations on out-of-school suspensions and expulsions this year

800

African-American students were FIVE TIMES more likely to be suspended than white students in Seattle public schools in 2013

FAIR

In the age of the Internet, criminal records are cheap and easy to obtain for employers, landlords or lenders – no matter how old or inaccurate they may be. ACLU-WA's Second Chances Project helps people OVERCOME UNFAIR BARRIERS posed by criminal records.

1 in 3 Americans has a criminal record

30

Years since one woman's conviction, yet she was fired when it appeared on a background check

20

Times one renter was denied housing because of an 8-year-old minor misdemeanor

619

Individuals ACLU-WA has helped navigate unfair obstacles due to having a criminal history

$150,000

Amount a tenant screening company paid to settle with ACLU-WA clients who were wrongfully denied housing after background checks

VOCAL

Legal Financial Obligations (LFOs) are fines assigned by a judge along with a criminal sentence. When judges jail people who simply cannot pay their fines, they create MODERN DAY DEBTORS' PRISONS. ACLU-WA is working to end the senseless practice that punishes people for being poor.

3 in 4 Counties identified in ACLU-WA Debtors' Prisons Report are now working with the ACLU to change practices

300

Days one homeless man spent in jail for failure to pay LFOs

30

Days he served for his original sentence

12%

Interest rate applied to all LFOs, accruing even while someone is in jail

20%

Of inmates in Benton County are serving time for unpaid LFOs

“ IN THEIR WORDS - WHAT LIFTING THE BURDEN OF LFOs MEANT TO ONE MOTHER

My son, who turned 2 in April, was able to have a real birthday. I was able to take the $50 that I normally would have paid on the fine and go to the dollar store. I was able to not only get decorations, but had enough left over to get a cake and two presents.

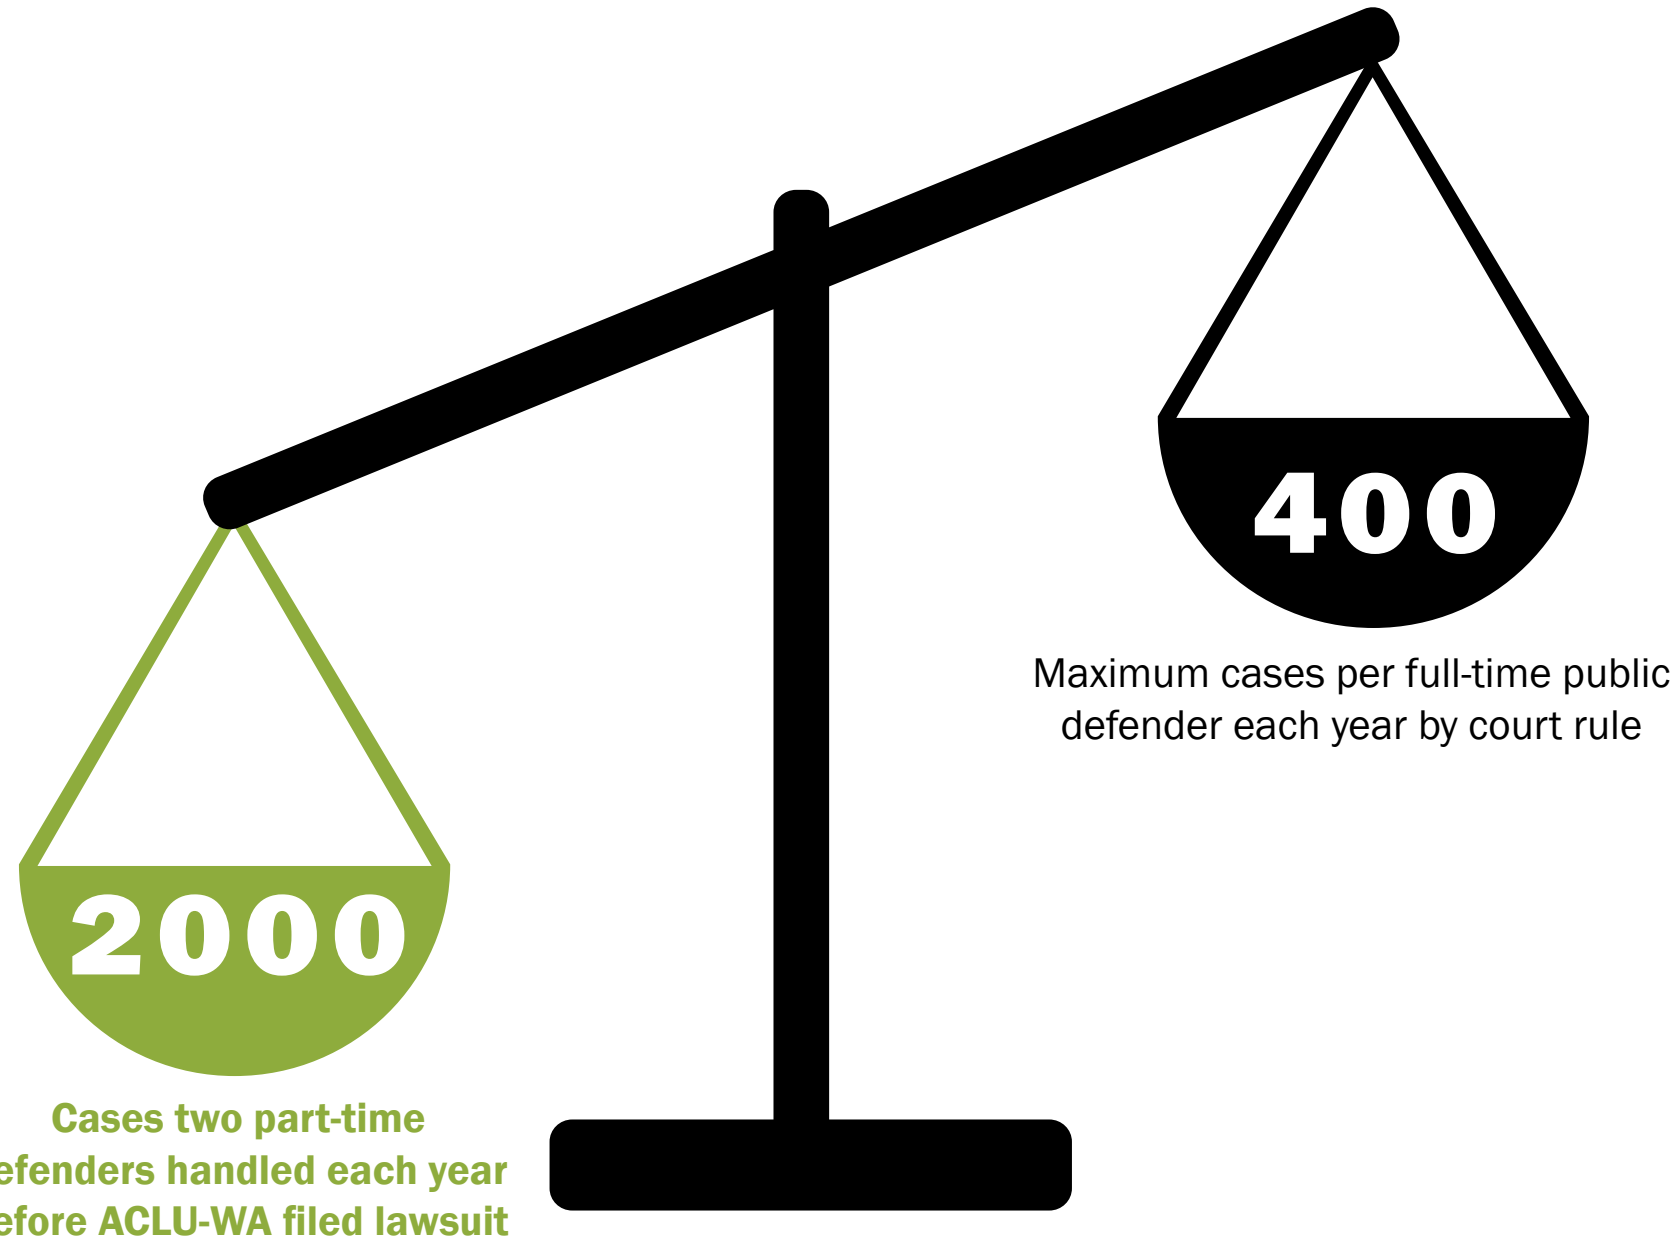

Because (my LFO fine was gone).....a little boy had a very exciting birthday. He was so happy, ate so much cake, and even had two little friends come over to share it with. Being able to provide just a simple little birthday for him meant the world to me and it wouldn't have been possible before.

EFFECTIVE

This year, ACLU-WA had a momentous victory for THE RIGHT TO DEFENSE in Wilbur v. City of Mount Vernon. The ruling repairs the broken public defense system in Mt. Vernon and Burlington and sets a powerful precedent for cities and towns all over the country.

VICTORY!

The notes of freedom and liberty that emerged from Gideon's trumpet a half a century ago cannot survive if that trumpet is muted and dented by harsh fiscal measures that reduce the promise to a hollow shell of a hallowed right.

- JUDGE ROBERT LASNIK, IN WILBUR RULING

years since ACLU case Gideon v. Wainwright first established the state must provide an attorney to defendants who are unable to afford one

2013-2014

AT-A-GLANCE

COURT VICTORY! THE RIGHT TO COUNSEL

Wilbur v. City of Mount Vernon. We won an historic ruling that will fix the failing public defense system of Mt. Vernon and Burlington and set a strong precedent for municipalities across the state and country. See Effective

SMART DRUG POLICY

Marijuana arrests plummeted, the first legal marijuana stores opened in July and revenue grows. ACLU-WA criminal justice director spoke on drug policy reform all over the world: from Uruguay to Athens, to the UN Commission on Narcotic Drugs. See Innovative

FAIRNESS FOR IMMIGRANTS

With ACLU-WA and allies' pressure, King County finally directed the jail not to hold immigrants for Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officials unless they have a felony charge.

TRANSPARENCY

With our help, Spokane now requires civilian approval before police obtain surveillance technology, and limits how captured data can be stored and used.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

We are representing a gay couple in Kennewick who were refused service by their long-time flower shop when they asked to purchase flowers for their wedding. See Persistent

RELIGION & HEALTH CARE

At our urging Gov. Inslee ordered rule making on hospital mergers by the Department of Health. Six months later at ACLU-WA's insistence WSU changed its plans so its new clinic would not follow Catholic directives that would have restricted reproductive and end-of-life care. See Bold

MILITARIZATION OF POLICE

The ACLU was on the ground protecting protestors and seeking justice in Ferguson, MO from the first days. In Washington, we have exposed the use of military technology by local police and called for changes. See Vigilant

FREE SPEECH

La Center City Council credited the ACLU-WA when it adopted a new ordinance protecting the right to post temporary signs in the public right of way.

HUNGER STRIKERS

This spring, immigrant detainees at the Northwest Detention Center began a hunger strike in protest of national immigration policies and poor conditions. In retaliation they were taken to solitary confinement and force fed. ACLU-WA intervened immediately and all were released from solitary.

LEADING THE WAY

Officials from San Francisco, Atlanta, Chicago, Maine, New York, Houston, Vermont, and China all visited Seattle to learn about the success of LEAD (Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion) which received the 'Innovative Program Award' by the Seattle Human Services Coalition. See Pragmatic

SECOND CHANCES

We helped more than 600 individuals navigate the barriers to housing, employment and education posed by their criminal records. See Fair

DEBTORS' PRISONS

Courts in Washington are examining their practices and getting training based on our work to end debtors' prisons. We have drafted a comprehensive bill to address the injustice. See Vocal

DREAMERS

We helped pass the Washington Dream Act so that immigrants who came here as children without documents are eligible for student financial aid.

THE NSA

The ACLU is challenging NSA surveillance programs nationwide. ACLU is legal advisor to whistleblower Edward Snowden whose revelations have opened new doors to holding the government accountable.

POLICE & TECHNOLOGY

We convinced Seattle Police and City Council to limit the use of facial recognition technology only to criminal suspects. See Vigilant

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE

We urged the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction to adopt new rules limiting out-of-school suspensions and expulsions, which are applied disproportionately to students of color and those with special needs. See Persuasive

YOUTH

In March over 200 students plus their teachers from a dozen high schools attended the annual ACLU-WA Student Conference on Civil Liberties.

COURT VICTORY! VOTING RIGHTS

Montes v. City of Yakima. We won a major victory for voters in Yakima where no Latino had ever been elected to City Council despite comprising 41% of the population. With our win, new districts will be drawn so that votes are no longer diluted along racial lines.

PRAGMATIC

ACLU-WA is a partner in the innovative Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) pilot program in Seattle. LEAD allows police officers to redirect people engaged in low-level prostitution or drug offenses to services like rehabilitation and housing assistance, INSTEAD OF JAIL AND PROSECUTION.

COSTS PER PERSON PER MONTH

LEAD

$396

JAIL

$3,197

COMPASSIONATE

LEAD's success supports ACLU-WA's belief that not every social problem should be treated as a crime.

250

People have gone through Seattle's LEAD program, many of whom were homeless

4 out of 5

Homeless people who entered LEAD now have some form of housing

Only 1 person has returned to jail after LEAD

IN THEIR WORDS - LEAD CHANGING LIVES

I was 14 when I was prescribed painkillers for a sports injury and that was it, I started using drugs and didn't stop. I went from being a good kid to homeless by my early 20s. When the cops caught me with drugs, I was living out of my truck. For whatever reason they took an interest in me and told me about the LEAD program.

I didn't have high hopes, I'd tried rehab before but those other services, the way I can best put it is they are like putting a Band-Aid on a compound fracture. But through LEAD I had a case manager who helped me with a place to live, job training, school, providing just the little everyday things.

People take for granted little things like soap, a shower. Little things like that make a profound difference. Before LEAD I believed that I would die on the streets. I had accepted that. Now, going back to school, being in a job where I can support a family, having a family. My dreams are no different than anybody else's.

In the wake of the Supreme Court ruling in Hobby Lobby, we must fight harder than ever to KEEP RELIGION OUT OF OUR HEALTH CARE CHOICES. Many Washington hospitals are merging with religious healthcare groups, putting reproductive, end-of-life, and LGBT care at risk.

46%

Percent of hospital beds in Washington in religiously affiliated facilities

72

Number of “Ethical and Religious Directives,” written by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops that restrict services such as birth control, vasectomies, fertility treatments, abortion, and end-of-life choices in religious healthcare facilities

Increase in comments on the Department of Health website after ACLU-WA urged members to weigh in

“ IN THEIR WORDS - A PATIENT'S STORY

I was elated to be pregnant and couldn't wait to be a mom when I ended up in the emergency room with severe bleeding and pain. After almost a week in and out of the ER, I was finally admitted to the hospital. I was told I had an infection and my baby would not survive. My doctor told me terminating the pregnancy was the best course to protect my own life and chances of having a healthy baby in the future.

It was beyond difficult but I opted to follow my doctor's recommendation. Then the doctor told me that I was at a Catholic hospital and an ethics committee would have to decide whether or not I could terminate there. While this committee of strangers decided what was right for me I suffered a miscarriage and became septic. I share my story in hopes that it will prevent other women from the same experience.

FLOYD & DELORES JONES TRANSFORMATIONAL FUND FOR JUSTICE ESTABLISHED AT ACLU-WA

The crisis of mass incarceration plays out in the everyday lives of millions of Americans struggling to survive, provide for families, fight addictions, live with mental illness, or simply regain footing on the path toward their American Dream. Floyd Jones' $10 million fund will build and sustain the ACLU's work to end the era of mass incarceration through major, systemic change to the justice system.
