YOU DO NOT HAVE TO TALK TO THE FBI.
Do not say anything without a lawyer. If you are a noncitizen, it is very important that you have a lawyer. If an FBI agent or police officer asks to speak to you and you would prefer to have a lawyer, tell him or her that you want to consult with the lawyer first. Write down the name, agency, and telephone number of the person who calls or visits you. Tell them that your lawyer will contact them soon.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO PERMIT THEM TO ENTER YOUR HOME OR OFFICE WITHOUT A WARRANT.
FBI agents or police officers cannot search your home unless you give them permission or unless they have a search warrant. If they say they have a warrant, demand to see it before allowing them to enter. Even if they have a warrant, you do not have to answer questions.

NEVER LIE OR PROVIDE FALSE INFORMATION TO THE FBI.
Lying to the FBI or the police is a crime.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU’RE CONTACTED BY THE FBI

SAFETY FIRST
If you are placed in physical danger because of ethnicity, religion or national origin:

DIAL 911 for the police if the threat is imminent and go to a safe location, such as a police station, church or mosque.

If you feel threatened in your home, MOVE TO A FRIEND’S HOUSE or a hotel for as long as necessary.

If you are the victim of an attack, threat or intimidation:

Try to get a clear look at the person so that you can ACCURATELY DESCRIBE physical build, clothing and mannerisms.

DOCUMENT EVERYTHING: names, dates, times, police badge numbers, witnesses, incident number.

FILE A POLICE REPORT and keep a copy of all records. Ask that the incident be treated as a HATE CRIME.

CONTACT THE ARAB HOTLINE OR IRAQI COMMUNITY CENTER for questions or concerns about safety and civil rights.
