YOUR RIGHTS
AS A PREGNANT OR PARENTING TEEN IN PUBLIC SCHOOL

IF YOU HAVE BEEN TREATED UNFAIRLY AT SCHOOL, WE ARE HERE TO HELP!

Contact the ACLU of Washington at (206) 624-2180 or e-mail us at ppt@aclu-wa.org

FOR MORE INFO VISIT ACLU-WA.ORG
If you are being bullied, or if people are saying negative or hurtful things, REPORT IT to an adult you trust.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

- Excused absences for any pregnancy related health condition or doctor’s appointment for you or your child.
- Make up missed school work
- Stay in all your classes
- Stay in your school
- Be safe & welcome
- Participate
- You may also be able to get EXTRA HELP - online or home instruction if other students get this help.

NO ONE CAN KICK YOU OUT, make you go to an alternative school or separate program, or make you take time off from school.

NO ONE should discourage you from taking or finishing a class.